

biography

W. R. (Bil) Thuma

*Geophysicist, International Consultant
& President AGT Systems NA. Aircraft
Location Specialist*

Mission Location Specialist on The Lost Squadron (Greenland), J2F-4 Grumman Duck (Greenland), Ghost of Charron Fokker Standard Universal (Manitoba Canada), Northrup Nomad #3521 (Ontario, Canada), Dyke Lake B-17G #1385 (Labrador Canada), and AVRO Arrow Supersonic models (Lake Ontario, Canada).

Current projects include a Norwegian Cornell, 2 Yales, a Swordfish, and a possible 'alligator' warping tug. Advised on the recovery of Halifax NA377 (Lake Mjosa, Norway) and search for Steve Fosset's Bellanca Decathlon (USA).

Founding member of the Aviation Archaeology and Heritage Association (AAHA), and member of American Institute of Archaeology, Canadian Harvard Aircraft Association Dive Recovery Team (CHAA), and Canadian Exploration Geophysical Society (KEGS). Co-founder of LAMP Lost Airmen in Muskoka Project. Former registered Professional Engineer Ontario. Director IHAS.